VI. Choices Have Consequences

Part 3: Learning to Hear

Matthew 19:4-5

Genesis 1:27; 2:21-24

I. GOD SPEAKS

A. In Many Ways

And He spoke many things to them . . . 13:3

B. Through His Word

Have you not read what was spoken to you by God?

12:3,5; 19:4; 21:16,42; 22:31

II. HEARING IS A GIFT

Blessed are your eyes, because they see;

and your ears, because they hear. 13:16

. . . Jesus touched their eyes;

and immediately they regained their sight. . . 20:34b

III. LEARNING TO HEAR IS A CHOICE

Listen to Him! 17:5b . . . and followed Him. 20:34c

A. ASSUME that your ways are not His ways

" . . . but from the beginning it has not been this way." 19:8c

B. AGREE with His reality first.

"Because of your hardness of heart . . ." 19:8a

C. ASK; SEEK; KNOCK; LEARN

"What do you think, Simon?" 17:25

"If the relationship . . . is like this, it is better not to marry. 19:10

D. ACT

"He who is able to accept this, let him accept it." 19:12c

"IT IS WRITTEN"

Jesus treated Scripture as the Word of God; so should we.

Did Jesus treat the scripture as the Word of God?
